BRINGING THE HAWKESBURY TOGETHER

What is Person-Centred Emergency Preparedness?

Person-Centred Emergency Preparedness (P-CEP) guides the community and its people through conversation to prepare for emergencies.

Self-assessment of risk, preparedness & support needs in emergency situations.

Development of formal emergency preparedness plans tailored to individual capabilities and needs.

Optimisation of self-reliance and planned reliance on others.

Why talk to us about your Emergency Preparedness?

The team at Peppercorn have been trained by Michelle Villeneuve, Associate Professor at the Centre for Disability Research and Policy, University of Sydney.

Peppercorn, supported by Michelle and her team, are collaborating to roll out an introductory version of Person-Centred Emergency Preparedness within the Hawkesbury.
